

Outreach Healthy Breeding Seminar 23.9.2017

10-10.15	Welcome
10.15-10.50	Healthy breeding: The human factor (Peter Sandøe)
10.55-11.30	The aspect of population size in healthy breeding (Jerold Bell) How does size matter? How to breed when the population is very small og very large? How can the vets help to ensure healthy breeding?.
11.35-12.10	Genetics and DNA (Leslie Lyons) The effect of DNA tests on breeding. Positive and negative side effects of DNA test. What to be aware of when using these tests.
12.15-13.00	Lunch
	Feline	Canine
13.00-13.35	Longevity and diseases in cats Purebred vs domestic (Dan O'Neil)	Ultrasound as a tool to estimate time of birth (Henriette Marqvorsen)
13.40-14.15	3 hot topics in cat breeding (Leslie Lyons)	10 most common hereditary diseases in dogs (Jerold Bell)
14.20-14.55	Ultrasound as a tool to estimate time of birth (Henriette Marqvorsen)	Extreme conformation and the influence on health (Brenda Bonnett)
14.55-15.20	Coffee break
15.20-15.55	Show me the numbers and how to use it (Dan O'Neil & Brenda Bonnett) How do we get valid data on diseases that affect breeding? And how can we use such data to ensure healthy dogs and cats?
16.00-17.00	What will the future bring? Trends in breeding and disease prevention (Panel discussion)

Outreach Healthy Breeding Seminar 23.9.2017

Venue/Sted:

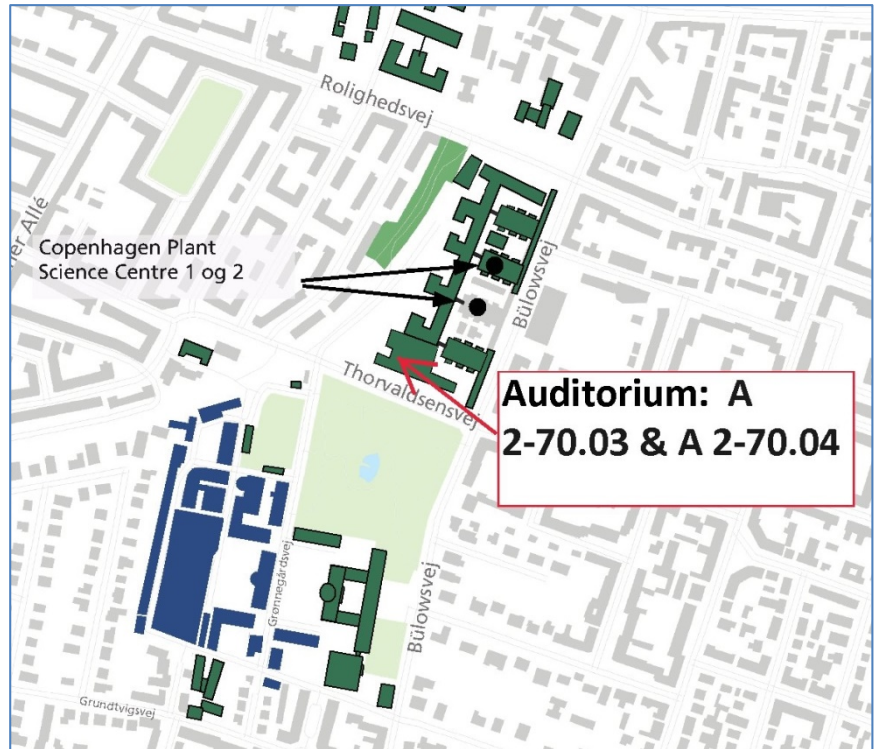

University of Copenhagen/Københavns Universitet
Faculty of Science/Det Sundhedsvidenskabelige Fakultet
Auditorium: A 2-70.03 & A 2-70.04
Bülowsvej 17
1870 Frederiksberg C.

Registration/Tilmelding:

<http://wsava2017.com/outreach-program#.WT-uVGjyDc>

Price/Pris:

30 Euro

Sponsored by/Sponseret af:

WSAVA
Global Veterinary Community

